

Name:

Grade: Eighth

Subject: Civics

Standard	Unsatisfactory	Partially Proficient	Proficient	Advanced
Civics	Student shows limited understanding of how to analyze elements of continuity and change in the United States government and the role of citizens over time.	Student analyzes elements of continuity and change in the United States government and the role of citizens over time WITH support.	Student analyzes elements of continuity and change in the United States government and the role of citizens over time.	Student analyzes elements of continuity and change in the United States government and the role of citizens over time and can explain why these elements are important to the world.
Civics	Student shows limited understanding of how to explain the place of law in a constitutional system.	Student can explain the place of law in a constitutional system with prompting and support.	Student is able to explain the place of law in a constitutional system.	Student can explain how the place of law in a constitutional system affects their community and the world.